NAMES of his Majesty's Packet-boats that ply betwixt Falmouth and New-York, with their Commanders

The Lord Hyde, Goddard; Harriot, Robinson; Duke of Cumberland, Goddridge; Earl of Halifax, Bolderson

The mail for North America, is made up at the General post-office, London, the second Saturday in every month, and the mail for England is made up at the post office in New-York, the second Saturday of every month also; and dispatched from each office without delay.

To the PUBLIC.

THE Publishers hope, that as this is the first attempt of the kind ever made in this province, the Public will receive it with indulgence, sensible some of the lists (particularly that of the Ministers) very imperfect; they crave the assistance of the reverend Gentlemen themselves, not only in this but in other three Provinces of New-England; that before first of October next, they would be so obliging as to the Publishers their names, and that of the towns ere they are settled. They request the same favour the Gentlemen Officers in the Militia, as they intend their next Register to publish a complete list of all the ficers in every Regiment of Militia in this Province. the Publishers propose that their Register shall con- not only the Lists of the different Courts and public fices of this, but of the other Provinces of New England, y intreat the Gentlemen belonging to the different rts and Offices, to send them the proper Lists, that Register may be rendered as useful and complete as sible. If any Taverns are omitted, or new ones set or if there are any mistakes in the distances, it is pected the Tavern-keepers will advise the Publishers them, that they may be corrected next year

☞ The Publishers have lately imported from REAT-BRITAIN, a New and Complete SET of

superior to any ever brought to America. They exe- e all kinds of Printing-work in the best and most rea nable manner, and with the utmost expedition.

Specimens of their Types, may be seen at the LON- N BOOK-STORE. Where letters concerning the gister (Post paid) will be gratefully received.

gh this author is a professed advocate for that sex, o leads the world, he does not however address them the usual strains of flattery and admiration, but in the per and impartial style of friendship. He entertains higheſt idea of their importance and destination; l does not consider them in that debasing light in ich they are too often considered, as formed only to domestic drudges, and the slaves of our pleasures; as intended to be reasonable and agreeable compans, faithful and affectionate friends,, the SWEET-RS and the CHARM OF HUMAN LIFE. There no compositions of this kind in the English language which are to be found greater delicacy of sentiment, rectness of imagination, elegance of taste, or that
